

A VERY BAD BREAK

A Walker Brothers' Employee
Says He Is a Thief.

A CARD FROM THE OTHER CLERKS

Kellow, Charged With Rape, Is Discharged—
Griffiths Did His Stabbing In Self-Defense—Olin Gives Up.

John McElary, a young man who for some time past has been employed as a salesman at Walker Bros., is lying in the penitentiary with a charge of grand larceny hanging over him.

On Thursday night McElary dropped into Sullivan & O'Brien's saloon, near Godde's corner, and talked of selling two pieces of silk and one piece of woolen goods. O'Brien suspected that the goods were stolen, but said nothing, and yesterday he went to Walker Bros. and an investigation showed that his suspicions were correct. A complaint charging McElary with grand larceny was at once sworn out and he was arrested in the afternoon by Deputy Marshal Vandercreek. He was taken before Commissioner Greenbaum and pleaded guilty, and was bound over in the sum of $50 to await the action of the grand jury.

The extent of McElary's pilfering is not known, but it is supposed that it will amount to several hundred dollars. McElary's downfall is attributed to gambling.

AN UNBETTER CRITICISM.

In connection with the above we have received the following from the clerks in the employ of the Walker Bros. company:

"In last evening's issue of the Times appeared an article in regard to a theft from the store of the Walker Bros. Co. In which an innocent man was grossly assaulted and slandered. We refer to a charge made by one O'Brien, of Bonfield notoriety, against Mr. W. H. Sunderland, in which he accuses Mr. Sunderland of being an accomplice in the theft, also of having been arrested and now in jail. We, the clerks in the employ of the Walker Bros. Co., declare the statement false in every particular as regards Mr. Sunderland.

"Mr. Sunderland is not under arrest and is still in the employ of the Walker Bros. Co. (Signed)

KELLOW IS DISCHARGED.

The Evidence Given by Mrs. McGee was not Corroborated.

The trial of Henry Kellow, of Bingham, charged with assault with intent to commit rape, was resumed in the Third district court yesterday morning with closed doors. Mrs. Alice McGee, upon whom the assault was alleged to have been committed, was recalled by the prosecution, but nothing in addition to the story told by her on Thursday was elicited.

Henry Kellow, the defendant, was the first witness called by the defense. He testified that he and some other parties were at Mrs. McGee's cabin in Bingham on February 17 last, and that all were drinking wine. He testified in regard to the assault in toto. His evidence was corroborated by others who were present, and Henry Kellow and Frank Freeman testified that Mrs. McGee's reputation was not good.

Mr. Varian argued the case for the prosecution and Col. Ferguson made a brief but brilliant argument for the defense. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty and the defendant was discharged.

IT WAS IN SELF-DEFENSE.

The Jury Exonerates Griffiths, Who Created a Sensation in the Foam Saloon.

The case of Charles T. Griffiths, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was then taken up, C. S. Kinney appearing for the defendant. The evidence was to the effect that on December 23 last, the defendant was in the Foam saloon, north of THE HERALD, and was there set upon by Richard Dunn, Royal McDonald and James Farnham. Griffiths was then in the defendant's saloon in the back with a butcher knife. The evidence for the prosecution showed that the defendant was in self-defense and the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Griffiths' father is the postmaster at McDowell, Missouri, and he has written to Mr. Kinney stating that about three years ago his son, then seventeen years old, ran away from school and came west "to make his fortune." He came here about two years ago and has been a cook at John W. Young's camp and at the Windsor hotel. It is to be hoped that this episode will prove a lesson to him.

WITH A DEADLY WEAPON.

For His Stabbing Affray Olin Gets Two Months.

The case of Henry Olin, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was next called up, Ferguson & Ferguson defending and E. B. Critchlow prosecuting. The evidence showed that on the night of January 25 last the defendant was in front of the Salvation army barracks on Commercial street when someone hit him in the mouth. He afterwards met Ben Christiansen, and supposing him to be the man who struck him, stabbed him in the leg with a pocket knife. The evidence showed, also, that the defendant was drunk when he stabbed the man.

The jury brought in a verdict of guilty and Olin was sentenced to two months' imprisonment in the county jail.

Mrs. Stevens Gets a Divorce.

Isabella S. Stevens vs. Lorenzo S. Stevens; report of referee confirmed and decree of divorce granted on the ground of habitual drunkenness and cruel treatment.

The defendant in this case is the party who recently obtained considerable notoriety through stealing his wife's jewels while she was in California, and he is now Ben Christiansen, who was charged with the grand jury upon that charge.

He is Charged with Robbery.

James Murray, indicted for robbery, alleged to have been committed in the city last month, was brought in from the marshal's office, and after a jury had been sworn, court adjourned until this morning at 10.

A Civil Case Goes by Default.

The case of the Utah Nursery company vs. B. J. White et al., came up before Judge Anderson in chambers yesterday. In this case the plaintiff sued to recover $500 and interest upon a promissory note. The defendants failed to appear and judgment was given for the plaintiff for $500.
